IX. FY 2023-2024 CCP Budget Discussion

Chief Jackson discussed the budget surplus, the fiscal limitations that were put in place which have contributed to the continued fund balance increase, and what the committee has done to mitigate the increased balance. Suggestion is now to remove those limitations put in place, look at actual labor costs, and look at existing programs to maximize agency effectiveness. Asking for the MA team to reach out to agencies and detail what it costs to do business, how to enhance programs, look at what programs are working, which aren't, look at staffing, costs, where funds need to go, and truly looking at what we can do differently. Clarifying questions were asked and answered.

Motion: Approve the ability for MA team to reach out to agencies, design budgets for 2023-2024 that maximizes the potential to serve the county, eliminate the 5% parameters / program enhancement, and expand CBO proposals. Motion was approved.

(Jackson / Diederich / 4 / 0)

X. CCP Subcommittee Report

MAIII Rigo Ochoa discussed the general findings and recommendations of the formed AB109 Subcommittee which included member representation from various county agencies and community organizations. Clarifying questions were asked and answered.

Motion: To support the recommendation made by the Subcommittee including but not limited to, completing an RFI and keep subcommittee going. Motion was approved.

XII. Public Comment

Ready to Work, Jose Dominguez and Delta College, Heather Maloy, discussed adult education and the collaboration with Delta Sierra Adult Education and various local agencies and community-based organizations. Goal is to design and develop different educational pathways for students. Shared how RTW partnered with DSEA, El Concilio -CalWORKS, and WorkNet to assist the re-entry population to obtain education and pave a career resulting in obtaining livable wages. Available courses through Manteca Adult are Forklift, Warehouse and OSHA-10, Introduction to Advanced Manufacturing, and Electrical or Pneumatics. Classes start January 17th. Pathway can then lead to other areas of training and stackable certificates. Discussed, Directing Adults on the Right TrAC for Employment, DARTE, wrap around support for students as well as Project Phoenix which assists re-entry students at Delta College.

MMCS, Daniel Serrano, shared they are finishing up their three-part outreach program Wednesday December 21st from 10am-2pm in a toy drive to assist AB109 clients for parents struggling to find presents for children, bettering relationship with children. Invited community to participate.

Living Stone Sober Living, Steven Ryan, shared he has a 17-bed home, welcome to tour facility, currently has 9 participants, 4 our which are enrolled in Delta College, 1 enrolled at UOP, 1 enrolled in truck driving school, and 2 who are working. He is taking that extra step to assist those formerly incarcerated and is here for the community, reach out.

G.L.O.M, Peggy Phelps, and staff, shared they are contracted with BHS and currently have crisis residential and social rehab services. Their new venture is re-entry with pre and post release services. Goal is to facilitate evidence-based groups, provide transportation, assist during release, create a reentry model, coordinate with the community, provide case management services. Shared they currently have 46 beds available in Galt and have 'day centers' in Merced, Stockton, and Lodi.

El Concilio, Maria Almanza, partnering with 5 Keys in which they have Community Alliance Partnership, CAP, meetings every 2nd Tuesday of the month, it's a platform for reentry services, collaborate with community, encouraged to reach out and participate in this available platform.

Chief Jackson thanked everyone for attending the meeting.
